The OATH to be miniſtred by the Maſter and Wardens of the APOTHECARIES unto every Apprentice of the ſaid Company.

YOu ſhall ſwear to be good and true to our Sovereign Lord the Kings Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors: And well and truly you ſhall ſerve your Maſter for the term of your Apprentiſhood, and in lawful and honeſt cauſes you ſhall be obedient unto him, and unto the Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants of this Company, and have them in due Reverence. The lawful Secrets of the ſaid Fellowſhip you ſhall keep, and give no Information or Inſtruction thereof to any perſon out of the ſaid Fellowſhip. In all theſe things your ſhall well and truly keep you and ſurely keep your Oath to your power.

So help you God.

And if it fortune you to depart from your Maſter his ſervice, you ſhall not ſerve any perſon out of the ſaid Fellowſhip without Licence of the Maſter and Wardens for the time being, upon pain to forfeit and pay to the uſe of the Company ſuch Penalty as ſhall be aſſeſſed upon you by the Maſter, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants for the time being.

God ſave the King.
